by turns lyrical and philosophical witty and baffling a school for fools confounds all expectations of the novel here we find not one reliable narrator but two unreliable narrators the young man who is a student at the school for fools and his double what begins as a reverie with frequent interruptions comes to seem a sort of fairy tale quest not for gold or marriage but for self knowledge the currents of consciousness running through the novel are passionate and profound memories of childhood summers at the dacha are contemporaneous with the present the dead are alive and the beloved is present in the wind here is a tale either of madness or of the life of the imagination in conversation with reason straining at the limits of language in the words of vladimir nabokov an enchanting tragic and touching book sokolov s school for fools is a network of memories of a schizophrenic raised on russian and western cultural traditions this child man becomes a prophet causing individuals to question their identity and their place dante grabina was the latest great point guard coming out of new york city and the world seemingly was at his feet not unlike many before him his dream was soon transformed when he saw nothing but dollar signs he declined to go to college and instead chose to go straight to the nba nicknamed blur he was physically and mentally unprepared for the nba and as a result he did not last when he tries to cash in on some easy money with an old friend from the neighborhood he is arrested and spends five long years in jail shelterball picks up years later when unhappy with his tedious life blur attempts to turn it around at the age of 35 he applies and is accepted to college while he is there he pushes himself to be a better student and citizen focusing on educating himself and gaining a broader worldview he is approached by the basketball coach who remembers him from years ago and convinces him to come try out for the team with basketball back in his life he gradually transforms from the selfish boy of his youth to the selfless empathetic man that he always saw and admired in his father moreover once his championship pedigree on the court transitions to the real world he begins a journey where loyalty honor friendship and a man s word become more valuable than money or fame shelterball is about blur s struggle with his family his friends a woman that he becomes involved with who is in an abusive relationship and most importantly himself coverage of russian eurasian and east european issues
